

ADMISSION TO THE SIXTH YEAR OF ADVANCED STUDY
APPLICATION PROCEDURE FOR NEW GRADUATE STUDENTS

Admission to The University of Texas at Austin is under the direction of the Registrar and the Director of Admissions.

To apply for admission to the Graduate School of The University of Texas at Austin, you must:

1. Submit a completed on-line (www.utexas.edu/student/giac/online.html) Application for Admission to Graduate Study directly to:

The Office of Admissions
The University of Texas at Austin
P.O. Box 7608
Austin, Texas 78713-7608

2. Request, from the registrar of each institution of higher education at which you have studied, a copy of all transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate work attempted or completed. You must ensure that an official copy (ies) (e.g., copies bearing an official seal from the registrar) reach the Office of Admissions. Former University of Texas students may pay the fee for transcripts along with sending in the Application for Admissions to Graduate Study.
3. A copy of the report on your Graduate Record Examinations General Test (the GRE) form the Educational Testing Service (ETS), sent directly to the Office of Admissions. If you are an international student whose native language is not English, you also must submit to the Office of Admissions a report of your score on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (the TOEFL) from ETS. PLEASE NOTE THAT IF YOUR SCORE ON EITHER THE GRE OR TOEFL IS NO LONGER AVAILABLE FROM ETS, YOU WILL BE REQUIRED TO TAKE THE APPROPRIATE TEST AGAIN.

If you are not a citizen of the United States, you must send/submit an on-line non-refundable fee (payable to The University of Texas at Austin) with your on-line Application for Admission to Graduate Study to cover the cost of processing your application. Additional information will be required by the University's International Office.

After all of the above credentials have been collected by the Director of Admissions, your application will be forwarded to the Graduate School and then to the Graduate School of Library and Information Science for consideration.

APPLICATION DEADLINES

	U.S. Citizens	Foreign Applicants
Fall Semester	February 1	February 1
Summer Semester	December 1	December 1

* You are encouraged to apply early in order to receive an early decision on your application.

In addition to the above steps, you must:

1. Submit the attached Application for Admission to the Sixth Year of Advanced Study to:

Chair, Admissions Committee
The University of Texas at Austin
Graduate School of Library and Information Science
1 University Station D7000
Austin TX 78712-0390

An important part of your application is to submit a statement of your long range career objectives and what you hope to study in the program (page 7).

2. Ensure that three persons familiar with your educational background and professional experience submit letters of reference to the Admissions Committee Chair. (This may be done on forms supplied in the Application.)
3. Have an interview with the Dean of GSLIS or with someone designated by the Dean.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE FOR FORMER UT-AUSTIN GRADUATE STUDENTS

If you are a former graduate student at UT-Austin, to apply to the program you must submit to the Office of Admission the following information:

1. A completed on-line Application for Readmission to UT-Austin.
2. An official copy of each transcript of all academic work completed or undertaken at other institutions since you were last enrolled at UT-Austin.

You must follow the same procedures as new students in submitting departmental application and reference forms.
